Notes and Schedule Follow

Notes:

- (i) Attention is particularly drawn to the Schedule to this Notice which sets out the rights of applicants who are aggrieved by the decisions of the Local Planning Authority.
- (ii) This decision does not purport to convey any approval or consent which may be required under the Building Regulations, 1991 any bye-laws or under any enactment other than the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. The Building Regulations 1991 apply to "building work" where it is necessary to submit separate full plans or a building notice before any works are commenced. Plans and details should be submitted together with appropriate forms and the relevant fee.

The Schedule referred to overleaf

Rights of Applicants Aggrieved by Decision of Local Planning Authority

- 1 If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment in accordance with section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 within six months of the date of this notice.

(Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment).*

The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them having regard to the statutory requirements to the provisions of the development order and to any directions given under the order.

- 2 If permission to develop land is refused or granted subject to conditions whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted he may serve on the Common Council or on the Council of the county borough London borough or county district in which the land is situated as the case may be a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- 3 In certain circumstances a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Part IV of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
